THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 25, 1882.

DEATH IN THE BED-CHAMBER WALLS,-Two cases of arsenical poisoning by sleeping in a room newly papered in a house on Pearl street, Cambridgeport, Mass, have come to light. The first is that of a Mr. Squire who returned to his room in his usual state of health, but before morning became very ill, and was subject to severe vomiting and purging. On the next night another person occupied the same room and the same kind of illness resulted. Attention was then drawn to the wall-many and a partion was removed and given to wall-paper, and a portion was removed and given to Medical Examiner Holtt, who submitted it to a chemist, and upon its analysis the presence of arsenic was detected.

[COMMUNICATED. THE CANTATA last Friday evening was a most creditable entertainment, and great praise is due all the young ladies who participated. But to the untiring perseverance of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Infirmary, Miss Emerson, we owe not only the success, but even the very inauguration of the effort. R.
